

HOME FURNISHINGS Business

STRATEGY FOR THE FURNITURE RETAILER

SPRING 2009

E-MARKET PREVIEW
HIGH POINT EDITION

Best Of HIGH POINT MARKET

IT'S Showtime

NEW PRODUCTS AT HIGH POINT

Brazil Baroque Furniture

The Barbacena dining collection from Brazil Baroque Furniture is hand-crafted and hand-painted and can be customized to any size and color. Suggested retail is $30,320.

IHFC, Interhall 209
brazilbaroque.com

Comfort Design

Upholstery producer Comfort Design debuts at this market with an upscale collection of leather products, including this lounge chair.

315 S. Hamilton Street

The Conrad Grebel Collections

Simply Dining is a new offering from The Conrad Grebel Collection that provides a variety of custom options.

220 Elm, Showroom 402
conradgrebel.com

Charlie Pearson Collection

The Diesel line from the Charlie Pearson Collection is a line of fine custom and small-scale upholstery. Diesel includes the settee shown here.

658 North Main Street

Chelsea House

The Hempstead display cabinet from Chelsea House offers hand-painting and hand-finishing. Suggested retail is $4,687.50.

200 N. Hamilton Street, 104
chelseahouseinc.com

BoBo Intriguing Objects

A wine tasting table from BoBo Intriguing Objects features a table top that folds for easy storage.

IHFC, Interhall 6
bobintriguingobjects.com

Butler

A grand foyer table from Butler features a star burst in hand-painted hues of red, gold, green and black. Suggested retail is $1,199.

IHFC, D1031
butlerspecialty.com

Cal Lighting

The Mica arc floor lamp from Cal Lighting has a three-way pole for creative lighting. Suggested retail is $199.99.

IHFC, D309
callighting.com

ClassicFlame

ClassicFlame is offering this wall hanging electric fireplace that provides a realistic flame with or without heat.

Plaza Suites, 1-500
twinstarhome.com